

Bio

Assoc. Prof. Jim Reid, MB ChB, FRNZCGP (dist.), FCCP (USA)

Jim heads the Department of General Practice at the Dunedin School of Medicine, New Zealand and is also Associate Dean for Postgraduate Education. A New Zealand graduate, he undertook postgraduate training in Miami, Florida. He is a distinguished Fellow of the Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners and is also a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians. He has a special interest in respiratory medicine and has published widely. He is a member of the medical advisory committee of the Asthma and Respiratory Foundation of New Zealand.

Jim has been active in research in asthma and COPD and has had wide international lecturing exposure.

Jim is the co-President of the International Primary Care Respiratory Group (IPCRG), and is also a member of the IPAG Guidelines Group.

Platinum Sponsor

Double Diamond Sponsor

Special Gold Sponsors

Gold Sponsors

